

Land Use Among Different School Districts in Fairfax County

Legend

Land Uses

- Open Water
- Developed Open Space
- Developed, Low Intensity
- Developed, Med. Intensity
- Developed, High Intensity
- Barren Land
- Deciduous Forest
- Evergreen Forest
- Mixed Forest
- Shrub/Scrub
- Grassland/Herbaceous
- Pasture/Hay
- Cultivated Crops
- Woody Wetlands
- Emergent Herbaceous Wetland

Fairfax county is an unusual county surrounding Washington DC, Prince William County, and Loudon County. It varies in land use. All the way from Deciduous forests to Highly developed areas. There are many high schools encompassed in the Fairfax county boundary each school district having a unique make up of land uses.

Esri, NASA, NGA, USGS, County of Prince William, Fairfax County, VA, VITA, Esri, HERE, Garmin, SafeGraph, FAO, METI/NASA, USGS, EPA, NPS